MIDSUMMER

[A PLAY WITH SONGS]

BY DAVID GREIG & GORDON MCINTYRE

Content to consider – detailed

Strong language: used throughout the show.

Scenes of a sexual nature: Two sequences. A simulated sex scene with no explicit nudity that takes place when the couple are in Helena's apartment, and the main characters later visit a bondage club. Sex references in dialogue throughout the show.

Simulated vomiting: Takes place the morning after Bob and Helena have sex. Retching noises are made and tinsel used as non-naturalistic vomit. Lasts for approximately 2 minutes and in to the next song. Helena later vomits again as she arrives at the church.

Simulated smoking: Brief references to drugs and the characters share a drag. An electronic cigarette is used on stage, no actual smoke.

Flashing light effects: Occasional bursts of flashing light effects when Callaghan confronts Bob at the doctors, when photos are taken outside the church and for a club sequence when the characters enter 'A Midsummer Night's Cream'.
