

LOVE AND INFORMATION

By CARYL CHURCHILL

Synopsis

Comprising over 50 short scenes, Love and Information weaves together a tapestry of human stories – some funny, some poignant, all deeply resonant. From whispered secrets to digital overload, Churchill’s razor-sharp writing captures the noise and nuance of everyday life with wit, insight, and emotional depth.

Forest Morgan brings a fresh and dynamic vision to this modern classic, guiding a talented ensemble from the Mercury Adult Company that is both intimate and expansive. Whether you’re a Churchill aficionado or discovering her work for the first time, this performance promises to leave you thinking long after the final blackout.
